

Medicare Supplement Plan G

Educational Summary of Benefits | Standard Plan

THE SIMPLE VERSION	For Medicare-approved services, Plan G covers the major gaps left by Original Medicare. Your primary routine medical cost is the annual Medicare Part B deductible: $283 in 2026. After it is met, Plan G pays the remaining Medicare-approved cost-sharing for covered services.

What the plan helps cover

- ✓ Hospital coverage: Pays the Part A deductible and Part A coinsurance, including up to 365 additional hospital days after Medicare benefits are used.
- ✓ Medical services: Pays Part B coinsurance after the annual Part B deductible is met.
- ✓ Skilled nursing and hospice: Pays the applicable Medicare cost-sharing for covered care.
- ✓ Part B excess charges: Covered when a provider is permitted to charge above the Medicare-approved amount.
- ✓ Foreign travel emergency: Pays 80% of eligible emergency costs outside the U.S., subject to plan limits.

WHAT YOU MAY PAY	You pay: your monthly Plan G premium, your Medicare Part B premium, the annual Part B deductible, and costs for services Medicare does not cover. This summary describes standard Plan G, not High-Deductible Plan G.

Provider access No plan network. You may see any U.S. provider who accepts Original Medicare. Referrals are not required.	Separate coverage Prescription drugs are not included; a separate Part D plan is typically needed. Routine dental, vision and hearing services are not covered by Medigap.

Important: Medicare Supplement benefits are standardized, but premiums, household discounts, underwriting rules, rate increases, customer service and optional carrier extras can vary. Keep paying your Medicare Part B and Medigap premiums to maintain coverage.

This educational summary is not an insurance contract or the carrier's official policy/certificate. It is not a complete description of benefits. Coverage applies only when Medicare approves the service, unless the policy specifically states otherwise. The issued policy controls if there is any difference. Medicare amounts may change each calendar year.
